

Birth to College Programs

In 2013-2014, HPAC served over 300 students through academic programming and education counseling, as well as provided social service support for families needing case management, counseling, and mental health support.

Program	Impact	Ages Served	Alliance Members and Partners
Early Childhood Programming
Play to Learn & Family School Skills Sessions	Foster a child's sense of curiosity about the world through facilitated parent-child bonding through play	Birth to 8 year olds	Parents and community members
Summer Smarts	Enhance the social and emotional and cognitive development of children entering kindergarten	4 year olds (rising kindergarteners)	Iridescent
Readers to Leaders	Improve language and literacy development of struggling kindergarteners	5 year olds (kindergarteners)	P.S. 48 and Hyde Charter School
Community to College Pipeline
SongCorps	Increase positive social behavior, school commitment, and improve writing skills of hard to engage boys	4th and 5th grade boys	P.S. 48
Shakespeare Ensemble	Increase school engagement, social skills, commitment, and literacy skills of students through in-depth engagement with a Shakespearean text and performance	4th, 5th, and 6th grade students	P.S. 48, Hyde Charter School, St. Ignatius School, M.S. 424
Storefront Ensemble	Strengthen school engagement, self confidence, and social skills through writing and performance	7th and 8th grade students	Hyde Charter School, St. Ignatius School, M.S. 424
Young Writers: Summer Workshop & Mighty Quills	Prepare students for college through the development of writing, critical thinking, and presentation skills	9th to 12th grade	Kenyon College
High School and College Scholars	Introduce students to career possibilities and expose to college environment	9th to 12th grade, college Freshmen and Sophomores

HPAC Scholars enrolled in Community to College Pipeline programs also participate in:

Field Trips, Community Service Projects, Career Days, Mentoring Programs, Tutoring, SAT Prep, College Admissions Support, Financial Aid Application Support